FCiências.ID - Associação para a Investigação e Desenvolvimento de Ciências, through its Chairman of the Board of Directors, hereby announces the opening of an international call for the recruitment of a scientific researcher with a PhD degree, within the scope of Project ILGerants ref: PTDC/EQU-EQU/32066/2017, in the form of an employment contract with an uncertain term, according to the Portuguese Labour Code and Decree-Law No. 57/2016, of August 29th, as amended by Law No. 57/2017, of July 19th, and complementary legislation.

I - Admission Requirements

Portuguese nationals, foreign and stateless persons may submit applications to this selection procedure, provided they hold a doctoral degree¹ in Technological Chemistry, Natural Resources Engineering or akin areas, that fully comply with the following requirements:

- a) The PhD must have been granted less than 5 years ago.
- b) Availability for short stays in national and foreign laboratories
- c) Training in the area of Technology Transfer
- d) Publications/Communications in the area of Ionic Liquids/ thermophysical properties/ Heat Transfer Fluids

¹ Please note that Degrees obtained in foreign countries need a Portuguese Recognition issued by a Portuguese high degree Institution, according to the Decree-Law nr. 66/2018, of august 16th and the Ministerial Order nr. 33/2019, of January 25th. The presentation of such Recognition is mandatory for contract signature. More information can be obtained in: <https://www.dges.gov.pt/en/pagina/degree-and-diploma-recognition>.

II. Applicable Law

1. Decree-Law No. 57/2016, of August 29th (RCD), in the wording conferred on it by Law No. 57/2017, of July 19th (RCD), taking also into account the provisions of Regulatory Decree No. 11-A/2017, of December 29th;
2. Portuguese Labour Code, as approved by Law No. 7/2009, of February 12th, in its current version (CT);
3. Administrative Procedure Code, as published in Decree-Law No. 4/2015, of January 7th, in its current version (CPA).

III. Work Plan

The objectives of the work plan are:

A1 – Screening of IL candidates - This task will be based on evaluating published data on relevant properties such as solubility, solvation Gibbs energies, Henry's law constants, vapor pressures and phase diagrams for binary and ternary mixtures (VLE/LLE) of Ionic Liquids and the use of the predictive software COSMO-RS/COSMO-SAC for understanding the better candidates for absorption refrigeration.

As purity is the cause of the recognized high dispersion of published data in the available literature, the selected IL candidates will be characterized according to two situations: first, as received from manufacturer, and finally, after being used either in measurements of any of the properties studied or after essays in test apparatus to check for undesirable effects on the working devices. The need for purification prior to use will be evaluated on a need to basis depending on the requirements of the application being considered.

A2 - Absorption refrigeration pairs formulation - This task will include:

- Measurement of thermophysical properties of IL's and mixtures. Density, vapour-pressure, viscosity and solubility of gases and water will be systematically measured as a function of temperature, pressure (when applicable), composition of the selected IL and working mixtures.

- Performance analysis of absorption refrigeration cycles with the selected working fluids and optimization of operating conditions. Comparison with the currently used absorption refrigeration pairs. Sensitivity study of the cycle operation varying some of the internal operating conditions of absorption cycles and the external circuits thermal conditions;

- Study of heat and mass transfer characteristics of absorption and desorption processes using the selected working pairs in laboratory experimental setups.

IV. Composition of the Jury

In accordance to article 13 of the RCD, the members of the jury are:
